

Introduction & Purpose

Loveland Archaeological Society / Harry Walts Memorial Graduate Scholarship

The Loveland Archaeological Society / Harry Walts Memorial Graduate Scholarship is awarded each year by the Loveland Archaeological Society, Inc (LAS). Applications are accepted each year from March 1 through April 30. The recipient will be selected and notified by June 30. The scholarship will be awarded in September during the Loveland Stone Age Fair (SAF) at the beginning of the SAF program. The SAF is held in Loveland, Colorado, each year on the last full weekend in September. The scholarship funds will be paid to the recipient.

The scholarship will be administered by the LAS with assistance from the University of Wyoming, George C. Frison Institute. Application packages are available from the department secretary in the Anthropology Main Office (Room 106, Anthropology Building). Completed applications must be returned to the department secretary by April 30.

The late Harry Walts was a long-time member of the LAS, and a long-time collector of Indian Artifacts. He always had a desire to support archaeology through research and education. Memorial contributions in Harry's honor formed the basis for this scholarship.

Name of scholarship: Loveland Archaeological Society / Harry Walts Memorial Graduate Scholarship

Eligible recipients: University of Wyoming second semester graduate students. Preference will be given for Colorado or Wyoming studies. Also considered would be focus in western high plains, foothills & mountains, Great Basin, or Colorado plateau.

Amount of scholarship: $500

Administration of scholarship: The Loveland Archaeological Society (LAS), with assistance from the University of Wyoming, George Frison Institute

Application: Refer to attached form

Funding of scholarship: LAS will provide a scholarship valued at $500. The scholarship will be funded:

First: With donations to the LAS from club members and the public specifically designated for the scholarship fund. This would include the Harry Walts memorial contributions.

Second: With interest earned on the money that the LAS has invested in CDs.

Third: With money obtained from the principal of the LAS CDs. It is hoped that enough money would be obtained each year from the first two sources to negate the need for this third source.
